

Parkinson Society British Columbia's

REGIONAL CONFERENCE

Victoria

Parkinson's disease is a unique and complex condition. To assist in expanding your knowledge of the disease, on March 24th, Parkinson Society British Columbia (PSBC) will host an afternoon of learning in Victoria. Our regional conferences are immersive and interactive opportunities for people affected by the disease to learn from leading experts while connecting with the Parkinson's community.

Topics covered at this conference will include:

- Research Updates: Dr. Jon Stoessl, Movement Disorder Specialist from the Pacific Parkinson's Research Centre
- Emergency Preparedness and Risk Management: Karen Martin, Disability Alliance and Rajpreet Sall, Emergency Management Community Liaison at the City of Victoria
- Enhancing Communications – Taking Care of Your Voice: Sue Decker, Registered Speech-Language Pathologist

Date: Saturday, March 24, 2018
Time: 1:00 pm – 4:30 pm
Location: Sandman Hotel Victoria, Orchid Room | 2852 Douglas Street, Victoria
Capacity: 100 attendees (To ensure the best learning experience, a minimum of 50 participants will be required 9 days prior to the event date. Please be advised that if these numbers are not met, we will be unable to proceed with the workshop and all registrants will receive a full refund.)
Registration deadline: Wednesday, March 21, 2018

Fees:

Member	$15.00	Non-Member	$25.00
Member (Couple)	$25.00	Non-Member (Couple)	$45.00

*Parkinson Society endeavors to make attendance at events accessible to all who may benefit. The Society may be able to subsidize attendance fees for those who require financial assistance. Please contact us for more details.

To register contact:
Jaclyn Willems, Education & Support Services Coordinator

www.parkinson.bc.ca
1 800 668 3330